NYC, N.Y. – June 8, 2018

Outstanding music program receives special invitation

Distinguished Concerts International New York City (DCINY) announced today that Rachel McCorry and The Village Singers has been invited to participate in a performance of The Music of Sir Karl Jenkins on the DCINY Concert Series in New York City. This performance is planned to take place on Monday, January 21, 2019 – Martin Luther King Jr. Day – in Isaac Stern Auditorium at Carnegie Hall under the baton of DCINY’s Artistic Director Dr. Jonathan Griffith, and will feature Stabat Mater and the United States Premiere of Symphonic Adiemus. These outstanding musicians will join with other choristers from around the world to form the Distinguished Concerts Singers International, a choir of distinction. Sir Karl Jenkins will be present as Composer-in-Residence. Dr. Jonathan Griffith will serve as conductor of the performance and clinician for the residency.

Why the invitation was extended

Dr. Jonathan Griffith, Artistic Director and Principal Conductor for DCINY states: “The Village Singers received this invitation because of the quality and high level of musicianship demonstrated by the singers as well as the exceptional quality of their audition recording.”

“It is quite an honor just to be invited to perform in New York. These wonderful musicians not only represent a high quality of music and education, but they also become ambassadors for the entire community. This is an event of extreme pride for everybody and deserving of the community’s recognition and support.”

The singers will spend 5 days and 4 nights in New York City in preparation for their concert. “The singers will spend approximately 9-10 hours in rehearsals over the 5 day residency,” says Griffith. “Not all of the time is spent in rehearsals, since there is so much history and culture to see in New York City. However, the performance is the primary purpose for their visit to the city.” Members of the community are encouraged to give financial support in sending these singers to New York by contacting Rachel McCorry at mccorryrachel@gmail.com.
